

NATIONAL POLICE DEFENSE FOUNDATION

DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

The National Police Defense Foundation, Inc, hereafter referred to as the “NPDF” is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors. We have developed this privacy policy to ensure that information involving our members, supporters and donors will not be shared with any unauthorized third party.

The NPDF provides this Donor Privacy Policy to make you aware of our privacy policy, and to inform you of the way your information is used. We also provide you with the opportunity to remove your name from our mailing list, if you desire to do so. Please contact us if you wish to be removed from our direct mailing or email list by sending us an email at npdf1@aol.com or at (732) 616-9600.

This policy applies to all information received by the NPDF, both online and offline, on any Platform including the NPDF website, social media and mobile applications, as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications.

The NPDF will not sell, rent, trade or lease your personal information to other organizations or entities. We assure you that the identity of all our members, supporters and donors and payment information will be kept confidential

The NPDF will collect this information that includes the name, address, phone number, email address and other information necessary to process membership, a donation or attend a specific fundraising event. This information is also used to conduct direct mailing campaigns, membership recruitment drives and participation in board approved NPDF affinity member programs where there is contractual obligation that said information is confidential.

The NPDF and its third-party service provider takes appropriate security steps in the processing of credit card transactions that contain the credit card number, expiration date and related billing information and has been duly certified as being PCI compliant with the respective credit card companies.